

YOU AREN'T AFRAID TO HOLD ME CLOSE. YOU ARE MY FATHER.

Your friends might not get it. The older generation might not get it. But you're different. You're not afraid to show your affection for your family in public.

Too many children feel that their fathers are distant or dominating, but you have a chance to be a father who cares for his children without embarrassment and who loves them deeply-- and who is not afraid to show it.
